

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR)

In line with new Data Protection laws that came into effect on 25th May 2018, we have updated our Privacy Policy to enable us to be General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) compliant and to give our members confidence on how we look after the personal data entrusted to us.

Compliance with GDPR:

As a club, we will only contact you about information relating directly to your membership (or your child's) participation in our sport with the Club. In joining, the Club initially, and re-joining annually, all our members are made aware of our commitment to remain compliant with GDPR and our intention to adopt best practice in this key area of administration.

We take this opportunity to repeat our intention, to adhere to the Data Protection Act principles contained in the GPDR as follows:

- 1. Lawfulness, fairness and transparency*
- 2. Purpose limitation - data collected for a specific, explicit and legitimate purposes and not processed in an incompatible way*
- 3. Data minimisation - adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary*
- 4. Accuracy - where necessary kept up to date*
- 5. Storage limitation - kept in a form which permits identification for no longer than is necessary*
- 6. Integrity and confidentiality - the new security principle specifies protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage using appropriate technical or organisational measures*
- 7. Accountability - a Data Controller will take responsibility for and be able to demonstrate compliance with the DPA principles*

As a Club we undertake:

- To appoint a Data Controller who will control how personal data is collected, stored and used on behalf of the Club. They will also take responsibility for maintaining any records necessary to demonstrate compliance with GPDR and ensure that such data is not retained longer than necessary*
- Only use your personal data, to contact you (or your parents / guardians) on any issues the Club Management Team deem necessary, within the confines of matters relating solely to the Club's operational affairs;*
- We will not share or sell your data to any 3rd parties*
- No "cookies" on our web site will harvest your personal data for use by, or sale to a third party*
- No personal ID / passport or payment card data will be kept electronically or otherwise by the Club*
- You can easily-opt out from receiving information from us at any time - to unsubscribe simply advice any of the Club Officers in writing*
- To respond to any request for a copy of personal data held, at no cost, on application to the Club's Data Controller in writing.*
- To ensure that data is only retained for as long as it is needed*
